

Gwynne Vaughan Park Society

Park Use Guidelines

1. Space at the Gwynne Vaughan Park, at the sole discretion of the Society may be booked for small events like birthdays, picnics, celebration of life events, and other informal gatherings.
2. The fee for Park use for small events is by donation. A federal tax receipt will be issued.
3. The Pavilion with picnic tables is available for booked events. The bathroom and the power and water near the Pavilion will be unlocked for booked events only. The bathroom is not a public facility and is not opened unless there is a booked event.
4. Noise (music, loud speaker, etc.) must be at a level considerate of the Park neighbours. Music must cease by 9 p.m. or dusk which-ever is earlier. The park is a daylight use park.
5. Please respect the Gwynne Vaughan Park gardens:
 - do not pick the flowers or allow children to climb trees
 - clean up after your event
6. Please respect the privacy of the Gwynne Vaughan Park tenants. The house is a private residence. Do not park in or block the driveway to the house.
7. Please ensure that the picnic tables are placed back under the Pavilion, out of the rain, if they have been moved.
8. Parking is available for 23 cars in the parking lot.
9. The Gwynne Vaughan Park is a City of Chilliwack Park but is managed by a registered non-profit group and much of the work is done by volunteers. Bathroom supplies, power, water and other costs are paid for by the Gwynne Vaughan Park Society.
10. Remember this is a public park and you have not booked exclusive use of the entire park.
11. To book an event:
 - check the web site calendar for dates already booked
 - Fill out the Booking Form
 - Email form to gwynnevaughanpark@gmail.com
 - You will receive a confirmation email